

Sleeping Arrangements

You will be allocated a dorm on arrival and will be expected to share with a small group of friends

We will set the dorm groupings for you but we do take into account friendship groups; so you have nothing to worry about!

Expectations

Please remember that we have used this site for many years, and we want to return again.

Please respect its beauty without affecting it in any way.

If pupils refuse to follow the centres rules they will be sent home.
