POLICY FOR POLITICAL EDUCATION

Politics is not taught as a separate subject at Thornton Grammar School.

The Governing Body and Headteacher will ensure that no teacher is allowed to promote one-sided political views when teaching any subject. Teachers must present different views in a balanced way where political issues are concerned.

The Governing Body and Headteacher will also prevent any pupil under 12 years from taking part in political activities whilst at the school, or in any political activity arranged by a member of staff or anyone acting in that capacity.
